The worksheet consists of three identical rows. Each row starts with a large rectangular box on the left for drawing. To its right is a smaller rectangular box labeled 'Woord:' for writing a word. Below the drawing box is another rectangular box labeled 'Uitleg:' for providing an explanation. To the right of the explanation box is another rectangular box labeled 'Tekening:' for drawing a picture related to the word. Colored arrows indicate the flow: a blue arrow points from the drawing box to the word box; a blue arrow points from the explanation box to the drawing box; a purple arrow points from the word box to the explanation box; and a red arrow points from the drawing box to the word box.
